FOREWORD

This work is dedicated to the Officers and Men.

The object of the compiler has been to furnish a pictorial record, valued not only for future reference, but as a memento of the organization.

The publishers desire to express their thanks to all Officers, Company Commanders, and First Sergeants for information, cartoon material, and assistance pertinent to the preparation.

SPECIAL NOTE:

This review, as originally designed and contemplated would have been the most complete and artistic ever assembled. We say this in all frankness and with no egotism. We spared no expense in gathering the necessary data. The work was ready for the press when the War Department issued certain regulations prohibiting the publication of all reference data, names of Officers, and rosters. This order makes it impossible for us to carry out our original plans. We confess our great disappointment.

We have, however, added certain material not originally conceived, and believe that each individual can supply—in his own way—any identification data he desires to record in the book. We earnestly hope the possessor of this volume will understand and appreciate our position; that our desire to fully conform to every provision and regulation of the Department necessitates the elimination of certain features.—See note in back of book.

THE PUBLISHERS.

Your Flag---My Flag.

Your flag and my flag,
And how it flies to-day
In your land and my land,
And half the world away.
Rose red and blood red
The stars forever gleam,
Snow white and soul white—
Our good forefathers dream.
Sky blue, true blue, with stars to gleam aright,
The Gloried guidon of the day; a shelter through the night.

"We have been given the opportunity to serve mankind and we have served ourselves in the great day of our Declaration of Independence by taking up arms against a tyranny that threatened to master and debase men everywhere and joining with other free peoples in demanding for all the nations of the world what we then demanded and obtained for ourselves."

—WOODROW WILSON

Your flag and my flag!
To every star and stripe
The drums beat as hearts beat
And fifers shrilly pipe—
Your flag and my flag,
A blessing in the sky;
Your hope and my hope,
It never hid a lie.
Home land, far land, and half the world around,
Old Glory hears our glad salute, and ripples to the sound.

General Pershing's Message

TO THE AMERICAN SOLDIER:

Aroused against a nation waging war in violation of all Christian principles, our people are fighting in the cause of Liberty.

Hardship will be your lot, but trust in God will give you comfort; temptation will befall you, but the teachings of our Savior will give you strength.

Let your valor as a soldier and your conduct as a man be an inspiration to your comrades and an honor to your country.

PERSHING,
Commanding.

Your flag and my flag,
And Oh! how much it holds,
Your land and my land,
Secure within its folds.
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight—
Sun kissed and wind tossed
Red and blue and white.
The one flag—the great flag—the flag for you and me,
Glorified all else beside—
The Red—the Blue—and White.

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE

By BERTON BRALEY

I'm sittin' here in a muddy trench
Somewhere on the Flanders line,
Where the rain comes down in a steady drench
An' the shells from the Boches whine;
While the folks are havin' a feast at home
I'm stuck in the muck of war,
An' I sit an' rattle my tired dome
To think what I'm thankful for.

Then all of a sudden it comes to me
An' I lift up my head an' smile,
An' my heart it jumps in a bust of glee
An' I laughs to myself awhile;
For though I'm here in a smelly spot
In the middle of death en' war,
Good Lord-amighty I know I've got
A heap to be thankful for.

An' here is the cause I've got for thanks
I'm livin' as fits a Man,
I'm doin' my bit in freedom's ranks
An' fighting the best I can;
Before I joined in this mighty show
I plugged at a routine job,
An' life was easy an' safe-an' slow,
With never a thrill or throb.

But now, though I'm in the midst of death
An' half of the time is hell,
I taste adventure with every breath
In the roar of the shot an' shell;
An' the rats may scamper an' cooties bite,
A habit that I abhor,
But I'm in the thick of a Man's-sized fight
An' it's one I'm thankful for!

Say, when I think of the way I'd fear
If I was a slacker guy,
Afraid to cut an' afraid to deal
In a game where the stakes is high,
I says to myself, "Say you, buck up,
You got no cause to kick,
Give thanks that you ain't no slacker pup
With a heart that's weak an' sick!"

I ain't a hero—you get me, Jack?
But nevertheless I ain't
No quakin' boob with a jelly back
An' a stomach that's always faint;
No doubt them fellers is glad to miss
The sound of the bugle call,
But if I die in a war like this
They never have lived at all!

So I'm glad an' thankful that I have been
A part of this roarin' game,
That I have suffered an' fought with Men
An' took each chance that came;
You may die soon, but you live a lot
In this ugly old sport of war,
So takin' it all in all I've got
A heap to be thankful for!

After all, our worst misfortunes never happen, and most miseries lie in anticipation.—Balzac.

War Time Recipe.—Rock Soup:

Gather about fifteen nice smooth pebbles; wash them carefully, put them in a quart of water. Boil thoroly, then serve.

(Note):—If you could borrow a piece of beef, a few vegetables, and some seasoning, it makes a real good soup.

Not His Fault.

Officer (In disgust to not over-bright beginner)—Is that your "right face?"

Embarrassed Rookie—Well, I can't help it; I was born with it.

Suspicious.

First Squirrel: That chap has been hanging around here for days. Wonder what he wants.

Second Squirrel: I suspect he is a food controller, and wants to jug us for storing nuts.

His Generosity.

A "Tommy" lying in a hospital, had beside him a watch of curious and foreign design. The attending doctor was interested.

"Where did your watch come from?" he asked.

"A German gave it to me," answered Tommy.

A little piqued, the doctor inquired how the foe had come to convey this token of esteem and affection. "E'ad to," was the laconic reply.

He Wanted No Trouble.

A Southern negro applied to the recruiting officer, desiring to enlist.

"What branch of the service do you want to join," said the officer.

"Lordy, Lordy, I doan know, but I shore would preciate it if you all ud put me where I'd be sort er safe."

"Would you rather join the infantry or the cavalry," said the officer, at the time explaining that the cavalryman carried a gun and rode a horse, while the infantryman carried a gun but walked.

"Look here, ossifer, said the Southern negro after carefully thinking over the matter, put me down for de infentry. I might wanner retreat some day, and I sho' don't aim to be bothered wid no horse."

Doing His Bit.

First Millionaire: We all must make sacrifices to win the war.

Second Millionaire: Well, I fired half my office force, fifteen servants and cut out tipping altogether.

Mother Goose in War Times.

Sing a song of sixpence.

A pocket full of rye,

We're saving of our wheat to send

Across the sea—that's why.

Sing a song of sixpence

Upon a meatless day.

We want the beef to feed our friends

Who fight—across the way!

Sing a song of sixpence—

We dare not waste a crust.

We're all on Hoover's honor list

It's victory—or bust!

Pantry Battalion Regulations.

The pan is mightier than the sword.

Live economically and let live.

A half-loaf is better than most of us get.

None but the brave deserves the fare.

You cannot be a glutton and a patriot.

Save food and save the world.

A foolish entertainer and her allowance are soon parted.

A soldier in need is a shame indeed.

A potato saved is a battle gained.

Learn to eat everything. All's fare in war.

IF
(BY BERTON BRALEY)

We'd sheathe our swords and we'd quit right now

If the Pacifists had their way,

We'd make some kind of peace somehow

If the Pacifists had their way,

We'd leave our allies to make their fight

Without the help of our wealth and might,

Yes, we'd be a fine brave bunch all right—

If the Pacifists had their way.

We'd lie down cold like a craven crew

If the Pacifists had their way,

We'd show that our word was a word untrue

If the Pacifists had their way.

We'd save ourselves from the present muss

Then if the Kaiser should win the fuss

Why later on he'd attend to us—

If the Pacifists had their way.

We'd be the butt of the whole world's hate

If the Pacifists had their way,

We'd meet the coward and quitter's fate

If the Pacifists had their way.

Wherever we went we'd find a ban

That cut us off from our fellow man

And I'd blush to be an American—

If the Pacifists had their way.

Terse Paragraphs.

Somebody has figured out that it cost Columbus only $7,000 to discover America. It will cost the Kaiser more.

Germany regrets, but not as much as she is going to.

"Singing makes fighting easier," says Maj. General Bell. Most of us have heard that kind of singing.

Isn't our earthly existence curious? Because Austria tried to gobble Serbia, we now have to pay three cents for our postage stamps.

In Petrograd a citizen goes to bed a traitor and rises a patriot; lunches as a revolutionist and dines as a rebel; turns a riot into a coup d'etat by running two blocks; and never for a moment knows what democracy is.

"Ford will quit making pleasure cars." How do you mean pleasure?

The Villa forces creating disorder on the border probably have just heard Pershing is in France.

A lot of girls are now getting a business training that will enable them to support husbands after the war.

The three Rs, as taught in Russia are riot, retreat and revolt.

One way to fill a soldier's Christmas socks would be to enlist.

No more $50 dinners, says head line. What is worse is that there are no more 50 cent dinners.

Complaints are growing that German agents have too much leeway in this country. The fact is, they haven't been given enough rope.

General Hell is a prominent officer of the German army. Wonderful how one can inspire an entire nation.

Apropos of the Liberty Loan, it costs money to win a war, but it costs a darn sight more to lose it.

Our respects to General the Honorable Sir Julian Byng, and the hope that, if the war must go that far, the final operations will find him byngin' on the Rhine.

The above pictures are views taken at the game played on Thanksgiving Day, 1917, between the University of Indiana Eleven and the Division Eleven. The game proved to be very interesting and some great plays were made by both sides.
Final score 7-7.

THE WAR IN BRIEF

On June 28th, 1914, the Austrian heir-apparent Archduke Francis Ferdinand was assassinated with his wife at Sarajevo. Accusing Serbia of complicity in the crime and alleging that the anti-Austrian machinations of Serbian patriots menaced the integrity of the Hapsburg Empire, Austria-Hungary on July 23rd, 1914, delivered an ultimatum containing demands with which the Serbian government would only partially comply. Despite the diplomatic remonstrances of other Powers, Austria-Hungary refused to submit the matter to peaceful arbitration, and declared war on Serbia on July 28th, 1914. The Russian government, frankly sympathetic with Serbia, ordered the mobilization of the Russian army and declined to countermand the order, whereupon the German government declared war against Russia August 1st, 1914. Two days later, Germany declared war against Russia's ally, France. Preparatory to the invasion of France, German troops had already occupied the neutral duchy of Luxemburg, August 2nd, 1914, and begun to invade Belgium August 4th, 1914, notwithstanding Belgian opposition. The British government construed the German violation of Belgian neutrality as a casus belli and declared war against Germany August 4th, 1914. Serbia and the "Allies," or Entente Powers—Russia, France and Great Britain—were subsequently joined by Montenegro, (August 7th, 1914); Japan (August 23rd, 1914); Italy (May 23rd, 1915); Portugal (March 9th, 1916), and Roumania (August 27th, 1916). The Teutonic or Central Powers—Austria-Hungary and Germany—on the other hand, while they failed to receive the support of their former confederate—Italy, succeeded in enlisting the aid of Turkey (state of war with Russia, October 30th.) and Bulgaria (October 14th, 1915).

AMERICA'S ENTRY

During thirty months of European war precedent to our declaration of war against Germany, the United States had maintained, in all of its international policies toward every warring nation, a strict neutrality. It wanted nothing in the Balkans. It had no part in the web of clashing ambitions and mutual jealousies out of which the European war arose. It went to the utmost tolerable lengths to keep out of the maddest, gravest, most horrible conflict the world has known. It detested such German crimes as the violation of Belgium and the sinking of the Lusitania. It refused to comply with the emotional clamor to play the role of armed avenger, exercising a patience and forbearance without parallel in history. It endeavored to gain an enduring condition without war and to save the neutral position that would enable it to advance the ideal of world peace.

The German policy of unrestricted submarine warfare (contrary to all principles of humanity) against all nations, neutrals included, left no alternative for America. Its hitherto peaceful attitude was misinterpreted, laughed at and maligned. Germany filled this country with spies, and its hirelings spread propaganda of the most violent nature. Our civil and criminal laws were flagrantly violated, and internal dissensions of most serious nature were created.

No sacrifice is too great where the principles of honor and justice are at stake. Amer'ca unhesitatingly accepted the veiled challenge, desiring no accessions, no indemnity, nothing. Its unquestioned purpose is to wage this war to the end, secure in the knowledge that victory will bring to its own peoples—and to those for whom it fights—a sure and lasting peace.

EXCERPTS FROM PRESIDENT WILSON'S WAR MESSAGE.

(Read to a joint session of Congress on the night of Monday April 2nd, 1917)

"It is a war against all nations. American ships have been sunk, American lives taken, in ways in which it has stirred us very deeply to learn of, but the ships and people of other neutral and friendly nations have been sunk and overwhelmed in the waters in the same way. There has been no discrimination. The challenge is to all mankind. Each nation must decide for itself how it will meet it. The choice we make for ourselves must be made with a moderation of counsel and a temperateness of judgment befitting our character and our motives as a nation. We must put excited feeling away. Our motive will not be revenge or the victorious assertion of the physical might of the nation, but only the vindication of right, of human right, of which we are only a single champion

* * * * *

"I am not now thinking of the loss of property involved, immense and serious as that is, but only of the wanton and wholesale destruction of the lives of non-combatants, men, women and children, engaged in pursuits which have always, even in the darkest periods of modern history, been deemed innocent and legitimate. Property can be paid for; the lives of peaceful and innocent people cannot be. The present German submarine warfare against commerce is a warfare against mankind.

* * * * *

"There is one choice we cannot make, we are incapable of making; we will not choose the path of submission and suffer the most sacred rights of our nation and our people to be ignored or violated. The wrongs against which we now array ourselves are no common wrongs; they cut to the very roots of human life.

* * * * *

"Our object now, is to vindicate the principles of peace and the justice in the life of the world as against selfish and autocratic power and to set up amongst the really free and self-governed peoples of the world such a concert of purpose and of action as will henceforth insure the observation of those principles. Neutrality is no longer feasible or desirable where the peace of the world is involved * * * and the menace of that peace and freedom lies in the existence of autocratic governments backed by organized force controlled wholly by their will.

* * * * *

"A steadfast concert for peace can never be maintained except by a partnership of democratic nations. * * * No autocratic government could be entrusted to keep faith * * * It must be a league of honor, a partnership of opinion. Intrigue would eat its vitals away. * * * Only free peoples can hold their purpose and their honor steady to a common purpose.

* * * * *

"We have no selfish end to serve. We desire no conquest, no dominion. We seek no indemnities for ourselves, no material compensation for the sacrifices we shall freely make. We are but one of the champions of mankind. We shall be satisfied when those rights have been as secure as the faith and the freedom of the nations can make them.

* * * We shall fight for the things which we have always carried nearest our hearts—for democracy, for the right of those who submit to authority to have a voice in their own governments, for the rights and liberties of small nations, for a universal dominion of right by such a concert of free peoples as shall bring peace and safety to all nations and make the world itself at last free. To such a task we can dedicate our lives and our fortunes, everything that we are and everything that we have, with the pride of those who know that the day has come when America is privileged to spend her blood and her might for the principles that gave her birth and happiness and the peace which she has treasured. God helping her, she can do no other."

ACTION BY CONGRESS.

Resolution which officially entered us into World War.

This resolution, adopted by Congress, entered the United States into the War as an enemy of Germany and an ally of the Entente Allies:

"Whereas the Imperial German Government has committed repeated acts of war against the government and the people of the United States of America; therefore be it

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the state of war between the United States and the Imperial German Government, which has thus been thrust upon the United States, is hereby formally declared; and that the President be and is hereby authorized and directed to employ the entire naval and military forces of the United States and the resources of the government to carry on war against the Imperial German Government; and to bring the conflict to a successful termination; all of the resources of the country are hereby pledged by the Congress of the United States."

HISTORY OF THE REGIMENT.

The nucleus of the 151st Regiment, U. S. A., was originally formed in 1888 and officially known as the First Regiment Infantry, "Indiana Legion." It was a militia organization, and under the then existing laws, received no financial support from either the State or Federal government. All state troops at that time were separate organizations. Data relative to the regiment's activities during the period from 1888 to 1893 is not available.

In 1894 is was assigned to strike duty in the coal regions in and adjacent to Sullivan, Knox and Davis Counties, Indiana, under command of Col. John W. Ebel.

In 1898, at the beginning of the Spanish-American war, the regiment was among the first to offer its services in defense of its country, and mobilized at Indianapolis, Ind., on April 9th, 1898. Its commanding officer was Col. George H. Pennington. Colonel Pennington being later injured by a fall from his horse, Colonel John C. Barnett succeeded to the command. The regiment was mustered into service May 13th, 1898, at Indianapolis and left that city on May 22nd, 1898, entraining for Camp Alger, Va. It remained at Camp Alger until Aug. 3rd, 1898, when it departed for Thoroughfare Gap, Va., marching the entire distance, arriving at the Gap ten days later. In the latter part of August, '98, instructions were received to report at Camp Meade, Pa. The regiment remained at Camp Meade until Sept. 10th, when it departed for Indianapolis. On arriving there, it was tarloved for thirty days, this being afterward extended to sixty days. The regiment was finally mobilized and mustered out at Indianapolis.

The regiment was reorganized on March 1st, 1899, with an approximate strength of 1300 officers and men and officially designated the "First Indiana Infantry." Colonel George W. McCoy was its commanding officer. It was mobilized in 1904 at Evansville, Ind., and assigned to race-riot duty in that city.

In 1915 the regiment was practically disbanded, several of its companies having been mustered out of service owing to withdrawal of Federal support. Companies A, B, D, F, G and L, having remained intact, or nearly so, were transferred to the Second Regiment Infantry, Indiana National Guard.

In the beginning of 1916, when affairs with Mexico threatened to assume serious proportions, the First Indiana Infantry had ceased to exist; but at the call of the President of the United States on June 15th, 1916, the regiment was reorganized on July 7th, 1916, at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., under command of Colonel Leslie R. Maffziger, comprising the First and Second Separate Battalions and several companies organized about the same time, forming a complete regiment with a quota of 52 companies, and approximately 1160 men. The home organizations of the companies, at that time were as follows:

Company A Indianapolis, Ind.; Company B, Laport, Ind.; Company C, Indianapolis, Ind.; Company D, Indianapolis, Ind.; Company E, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Company F, Gary, Ind.; Company G, Michikan City, Ind.; Company H, Knox, Ind.; Company I, Bloomington, Ind.; Company K, Martinsville, Ind.; Company L, Winamac, Ind.; Company M, New Castle, Ind.

The regiment, entrained for Llano Grande, Texas, on July 11th, 1916, arriving there July 16th. It remained in camp, participating in War maneuvers in the Browningville district from Nov. 12th to Nov. 23rd, returning to Llano Grande, marching over 125 miles. While in border service, the regiment lost only three men, two of the deaths being accidental.

The regiment left Llano Grande on March 2nd, 1917, and entrained for Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind. It arrived there March 6th and was mustered out of Federal service on March 14th, each company departing for its home station.

Company I returned home in October, 1916, and was mustered out as a student organization. Companies H and L were disbanded in April, 1917. A new company was organized at Terre Haute, taking the place of Company H. Another new company was organized at Tipton, Ind., to take the place of Company I, and a third at East Chicago, to assume the place of Company L. The Machine Gun, Headquarters, and Supply Companies were organized at Indianapolis.

When the war with Germany was declared the regiment held itself in readiness to answer the call of the President. All companies mobilized on Aug. 5th, 1917, at their home stations, and with the exception of Company F, entrained for Fort Benjamin Harrison, where the regimental mobilization was effected, Colonel Emmett F. Branch commanding. Company F left Gary on August 21st, 1917, being assigned to a particular duty at Camp Shelby, Miss.

The regiment entrained for Camp Shelby, Miss., Sept. 26th, 1917, arriving there Sept. 29th, with a strength of approximately 1720 men. Shortly after its arrival, an additional 1730 selectmen, principally from Indiana, were merged with the regiment, assigned to various companies, completing its numerical war strength.

Lt. Col. George F. Healey, who has been in command of the 151st Infantry since its arrival at Camp Shelby, Miss., is the son of Col. Joshua Healey, who commanded the 151st Indiana Infantry during the latter days of the Civil War. His military experience does not cover as many years nor as wide a range of experience as many officers of his rank because he entered service from civil life with the rank of Captain. His first command was Company M, 3rd Indiana, which he molded into a first class organization and now points to with pride as the first school for many who are now holding commissions in the Army, Navy, National Guard and National Army. He has always held the view that every enlisted man in his organization is a patriot, offering his life for his country, and as such, deserving every consideration during process of training. This attitude toward them has never caused a depreciation in matters of military discipline but obedience and soldierly bearing have been secured by persuasion with a marked degree of success. It is this spirit which has inspired the officers and enlisted men alike to make the old First Indiana, which was given the numerical designation of the 151st Infantry after its arrival at Camp Shelby, a model organization in discipline and utilize its collective spirit in acquiring training in the new things that are essential in this great war for world freedom. Lt. Col. Healey has held in the administration of his command what he has believed would have been the policy of Col. Emmett F. Branch, whose ill health has kept him absent from the command since Sept. 23rd.

During January, 1918, Lt. Col. Healey was commissioned Colonel of the Regiment, a promotion that proved to be very popular with the men.

In conclusion it can only be said that the real history of the 151st Infantry is yet an unwritten page. It is sufficient however, to prophesy that from the rank and file of its officers and men—given the opportunity to strike a blow for world freedom—hundreds of their names will hereafter be remembered and honored by their associates, and inscribed, with a lasting gratitude, in the hearts of their countrymen.
